

SIMMONS GSLIS

Full-Time Tenure Track Openings Graduate School of Library and Information Science

GSLIS invites applicants and nominations for full-time tenure-track positions at open rank.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Teach, conduct research, and contribute to developing curriculum in one or more of the following general areas:

- Collection development and management
- Evaluation of services and research methods
- Managerial leadership
- School media services
- Reference sources and services
- Technology (e.g., telecommunications and networking, human-computer interaction, digital and hybrid libraries, database management)

QUALIFICATIONS: Preference will be given to applicants who have already earned a terminal degree in library and information science or an appropriate related field, can demonstrate excellence in teaching, and have potential for leadership in scholarship and professional service.

Salary negotiable, commensurate with experience and qualifications. Opportunities are available for summer teaching, teaching in the GSLIS program at the Mount Holyoke College campus in South Hadley, Massachusetts, and continuing education institutes. Simmons College participates in TIAA/CREF and offers excellent benefits packages, including tuition reimbursement for dependents at Simmons and other institutions.

Send letter of application, a curriculum vitae, and the names of three references to: Professor Peter Hernon, Chair, Committee on Rank, Tenure and Appointments, GSLIS, Simmons College, 300 The Fenway, Boston, MA 02115-5898, or e-mail: peter.hernon@simmons.edu. Review of applicants will continue until the positions are filled.

Simmons College is strongly committed to diversity and values candidates who bring a variety of backgrounds and experiences to our community.

For more information, please visit us at www.simmons.edu/gslis/