

SPONSORED PROGRAMS—FUND FOR RESEARCH GRANTS
2009–2010

PROJECT TITLE AND DIRECTOR	AMOUNT RECEIVED
Beta Amyloid Effects on Transmitter Release in the Retina D. Bruce Gray, Department of Biology	$2,500
Conditioning attention as a positive reinforcer with children with autism Judah B. Axe, Department of Education	$2,400
Haydn's Muse: Therese Jansen Bartolozzi Gregory Slowik, Department of Art and Music	$2,500
Voices in the Margins: Representation in Anti-Poverty Policymaking Catherine Paden, Department of Political Science	$2,500
Comrades and Enemies—Xuehong Xie and Naguang Xie—Journeys of Two Radicals Zhigang Liu, Department of History	$2,500
Violence in a Time of Peace: Savagery, Modernity, and Silences in Contemporary Guatemala Anna Belinda Sandoval Giron, Department of Sociology	$2,500
Exploration of how African American Women coped with the impact of a traumatic negative life event such as Hurricane Katrina and daily stressors in their lives following evacuation to Austin, Texas Johnnie Hamilton-Mason, School of Social Work	$1,184
Identification and Interruption on Monitor Alarms using High Fidelity Simulation Priscilla Gazarian, Nursing Programs	$1,875
Using molecular genetics to evaluate the ecological role of clonal growth in coast redwood (Sequoia sempervirens) Vladimir Douhovnikoff, Department of Biology	$2,500