Financial Aid for U.S. Citizens

While the responsibility for educational financing belongs with the student, Simmons College administers a low interest loan program that assists students in financing their education. At Simmons, financial aid is based on both academic excellence and financial need. The Office of the Dean offers assistance in the form of scholarships and assistantships. SHS offers limited merit awards or assistantships for teaching and research. These awards are competitive and are based on merit.

Applicants are automatically considered for these merit awards. There is no separate, special application for merit awards. Financial need is used to determine eligibility for federal financial aid (low interest loans). Financial need is determined through an evaluation of a student's ability to contribute toward educational expenses.

Potential first year graduate students must submit a FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) form and Simmons College Supplemental Form for federal financial aid (low interest loans) to the Office of Student Financial Services by the March 1 deadline for summer and fall entry and November 1 for spring entry. Students must be enrolled at least half time to be eligible for federal financial aid. Check with the specific program you are interested in to determine the minimum number of credits considered to be half time. The Simmons FAFSA code is 002208.

All Simmons financial aid decisions are made on an academic year basis. In order to receive aid in subsequent years, you must reapply each year, and for priority consideration, meet established deadlines. Renewal of financial aid is contingent upon meeting satisfactory academic progress as well as all other eligibility criteria. The amount of future aid will depend on calculated financial need and available funding levels. Financial aid can be higher or lower in future years if student circumstances or the college's ability to provide aid change.

Students interested in further information about financial aid at Simmons can find comprehensive information on the financial aid web site at <http://my.simmons.edu/sfs/> or by calling the Office of Student Financial Services at 617.521.2036.
