ESSAY QUESTION: (Please attach your answer to the following question using 12 point font, Times New Roman, 1 inch margins.)

Women enter the Certificate in Entrepreneurship program with varied levels of certainty about the venture they plan to launch and the time frame in which they will launch it. What brings the cohort together is an excitement and energy around exploring entrepreneurship as a potential career path. It is not necessary that you have a fully formed business idea to apply to the Certificate in Entrepreneurship program. During the first four months of the program, you can develop your approach by industry, venture type and timeline. In the question below, tell us about your entrepreneurship intentions – what do you know today? Why is this the path you want to explore?

What are your entrepreneurial ambitions and how would the Simmons School of Management Certificate in Entrepreneurship help you to achieve your goals? When do you believe you will launch your venture? What will it take to get there?

OPTIONAL:

The Simmons School of Management seeks information about its applicant pool solely to evaluate its ongoing efforts to attract a diverse student body. Your response to this question will not be considered or affect your candidacy for admission to Simmons College.
