

Mary Mattson Kenworthy

Managing Director, Private Wealth Management
UBS Financial Services, Inc.

Mary Mattson Kenworthy has spent 25 years in the financial industry, and is a Managing Director in the Private Wealth Management Division of UBS. Mary and her team have the responsibility of coordinating the investment management, fiduciary, banking, brokerage and wealth advisory services for wealthy individuals and families. Before being recruited to UBS, Mary was a Managing Director at Lehman Brothers for four years, and the New England Region Head for the JP Morgan Private Bank during her 13 years there. Mary serves on the Development Committee of the Bruce Museum, on the Dean's Advisory Council for the Simmons School of Management, and, recently, on the boards of the New England Council as well as the Boston Museum Project.