

Madge M. Meyer

Executive Vice President
Head of Global Infrastructure Services
State Street Corporation

Madge M. Meyer is executive vice president of State Street Corporation and head of global infrastructure services. In this leadership role, Ms. Meyer is responsible for State Street's technology infrastructure solutions and services across Europe, the Middle East, Africa, Asia-Pacific and the Americas.

Prior to joining State Street in 2001, Ms. Meyer served as first vice president for Merrill Lynch's Enterprise Technology Services. Earlier in her career, she held several executive positions at IBM with responsibilities for global technology infrastructure strategy and implementation, application development, outsourcing service delivery, and worldwide network services.

In 2004, Ms. Meyer was named to Computerworld's Premier 100 list, which honors individuals who have had a positive impact on their organization through technology, and in 2007 she was named to the YWCA Boston's Academy of Women Achievers.

Ms. Meyer received her Bachelor of Arts degree in mathematics and chemistry from the University of Mary-Hardin Baylor. She is currently a member of the board for the Wall Street Technology Association, a member of Simmons College's School of Management Business Advisory Council and an advisory board member of the Asian American Civic Association.