

Liza Sichon

Vice President, TSG Americas Human Resources
Hewlett Packard Company

Liza Sichon is Vice President of Business Human Resources, for HP's Technology Solutions Group (TSG) Americas.

Liza is responsible for the organization's workforce planning, talent management and organization transformation strategic initiatives. Her primary goals are to drive profitable growth in the North and South Americas region and to deliver best-in-class HR services and programs to promote a world class workforce. She founded the Executive Women's Board.

Prior to joining HP, Liza was Vice President Human Resources International at Avaya, Inc., where she was responsible for HR strategy and operations for EMEA, Asia-Pacific, Latin America regions. She oversaw all aspects of HR strategy & operations in more than 30 countries with more than 8000 employees outside the US and also served as the HR lead for mergers and acquisitions for the company.

Liza has also held various HR roles at Corning Life Sciences, Citibank and Anscor Corporation in the Philippines. She is noted for her broad business orientation and deep working knowledge of global operations.

Liza holds a B.A. in Psychology from the University of the Philippines and a M.A. in Organizational Psychology from Columbia University. She is a member of the Conference Board's Global HR Council and the Simmons School of Management Advisory Council.

Liza and her family have lived in Asia, Europe and the US. An empty nester, Liza and her husband, Danny currently live in Massachusetts. They frequently visit their three children in New York City.