

ENGLISH

Note: Graduate students who wish to take a 200 level liberal arts course will contract with the course instructor to do additional upper level work appropriate for the graduate level so that he or she may receive graduate credit for the course.

Note: Courses listed on AARC that do not appear on this list may be approved by the Director of the Professional License Program.

ENGLISH CONTENT COURSES

CHL 313/513	Survey of Children's Literature for Children and Young Adults
CHL 401	Criticism of Literature for Children
CHL 411	Victorian Children's Literature
CHL 413	Realistic Fiction for Young Adults
CHL 414	Fantasy and Science Fiction
CHL 425	Folk and Fairy Tales
CHL 436	Nonfiction: The New Frontier in Children's Literature

Note: Students must request permission from the Director of Children's Literature to register for a Children's Literature course. Students may take two Children's Literature courses.

ENG 506 Victorian Literature and Culture

ENG 3/507 Jane Austen and Virginia Woolf

ENG 3/508 The Postcolonial Novel

ENG 3/517 Toni Morrison and American Literature

The following courses have not yet been approved, but are available to students with permission from the Program Director. A course syllabus must be submitted to the Program Director when requesting course approval.

ENG 3/504 The Romantic Rebel

ENG 3/510 Advanced Creative Writing

ENG 3/512 Classic American Writers

ENG3/516 Native American Literature

ENG 3/520 American Women Poets

ENG 3/523 Special Topics in Literature

ENG 3/526 Medieval and Renaissance Literature

ENG 3/527 Race and Gender Psychoanalytic

ENG 3/530 Postcolonial Film

ENG 3/542 18th Century Literature

ENG 3/554 Studies in Film Genre

ADVANCED PEDAGOGY COURSES

GEDUC 529 Race, Culture, Identity and the Achievement Gap

SPND 422 Differentiating Instruction Using Technology Across the Curriculum

SPND 436 Formal and Informal Assessment

SPND 446 Learners with Special Needs

SPND 444 Special Education Laws and Regulations for Teachers

SPND 445 The Individualized Education Program (IEP)

GEDUC 445 Educational Psychology