

PROGRAM LEARNING OBJECTIVES

	PHILOSOPHY	MAJOR
GOALS	OUTCOMES	MEASUREMENTS	REQUIRED COURSES
1. Knowledge of the main problems and positions in at least three periods in the history of philosophy	a. Describe philosophical problems or positions in a historical period b. Explain the meaning of philosophical concepts in a historical period c. Compare or evaluate different philosophical positions in a historical period	Discussions Presentations Papers Exams	Three of the following: PHIL 241(Ancient period) PHIL 242 (Modern period) PHIL 243 (19th-century) PHIL 244 (Contemporary period) PHIL 245 (Existentialism)
2. Knowledge of the basic theory and standard methods of analysis and evaluation in (mathematical or informal) logic	a. Identify different types of claims, issues, and/or arguments and their components b. Evaluate arguments and identify mistakes in reasoning c. Prove the validity or invalidity of arguments	In-class exercises Exams	One of the following: PHIL 122 (Critical Thinking) PHIL 123 (Symbolic Logic)

	PHILOSOPHY	MAJOR
GOALS	OUTCOMES	MEASUREMENTS	REQUIRED COURSES
3. Knowledge of a variety of ethical theories	a. Describe an ethical theory and its rationale b. Explain the meaning of key ethical issues, concepts or principles c. Compare or evaluate different ethical theories	Discussions Presentations Papers Exams	PHIL 130 (Ethics)
4. In-depth understanding of particular philosophical problems, domains, or positions	a. Explain and analyze a problem, domain, or position from a particular perspective b. Examine critically a philosophical position, domain, or problem c. Develop a philosophical position or response to a philosophical problem	Discussions Presentations Papers Exams	At least two intermediate-level courses; and Phil 390 (Seminar) Option of additional independent learning courses, including other Philosophy Seminars

	PHILOSOPHY	MINOR
GOALS	OUTCOMES	MEASUREMENTS	REQUIRED COURSES
1. Knowledge of the main problems and positions in at least two periods in the history of philosophy	a. Describe philosophical problems or positions in a historical period b. Explain the meaning of philosophical concepts in a historical period c. Compare or evaluate different philosophical positions in a historical period	Discussions Presentations Papers Exams	Two of the following: PHIL 241(Ancient period) PHIL 242 (Modern period) PHIL 243 (19th-century) PHIL 244 (Contemporary period) PHIL 245 (Existentialism)
2. Knowledge of the basic theory and standard methods of analysis and evaluation in (mathematical or informal) logic	a. Identify different types of claims, issues, and/or arguments and their components b. Evaluate arguments and identify mistakes in reasoning c. Prove the validity or invalidity of arguments	In-class exercises Exams	One of the following: PHIL 122 (Critical Thinking) PHIL 123 (Symbolic Logic)