

SLIS Archives Management Concentration

SLIS Program: 36 Total Credit Hours

- SLIS Core Courses: 9 Credit Hours
- Required Archives Core Courses: 15 Credit Hours
- Electives: 12 Credit Hours

SLIS Core Courses: 9 Credit Hours (3 credits per course)

All three SLIS core courses must be taken in the first 12 credits of the program (i.e. 3 of the first 4 classes).

- LIS 407: Information Sources & Services
- LIS 415: Information Organization
- LIS 488: Technology for Information Professional

Archives Core Courses: 15 Credit Hours (3 credit hours per course)

- LIS 438: Introduction to Archival Methods and Services
 - Includes a 60-hour Field Experience
- LIS 440: Archival Access and Use
 - Prerequisite(s): LIS 415, LIS 438
- LIS 442: Establishing Archives and Manuscript Programs
 - Prerequisite(s): LIS 438, LIS 440

Core Archival Function Course

Choose one:

- LIS 433: Oral History
- LIS 441: Appraisal
- LIS 456: Records Management
- LIS 476: Outreach & Advocacy
 - Prerequisite(s): LIS 407, LIS 438/LIS 432
- LIS 505M: Government Archives
 - Prerequisite(s): LIS 438
- LIS 448: Digital Stewardship

Electives

Archives concentrators may select any electives from the entire SLIS curriculum, including those listed above.

Other suggested courses include:

- LIS 432: Concepts in Cultural Heritage
- LIS 443: Archives, History, and Collective Memory
- LIS 445: Metadata
- LIS 446: Art Documentation
- LIS 449: Rare Books/Special Collections
- LIS 458: Database Management
- LIS 471: Photographic Archives
- LIS 472: Moving Image Archives
- LIS 477: Digital Asset Management
- LIS 512: Advanced Field Experience in LIS