

Notes

- The Law and Justice Minor is an interdisciplinary and integrative approach to student learning with disciplines, departments, and schools across the university.
- Students will take 5 courses to complete the minor: 2 required courses and 3 electives.
- No more than two electives can be taken in any one department.
- Courses from across the university may be selected with permission from the minor’s director.

Minor in Law and Justice

Complete the following two courses.

Course #	Course Title	Credits	Complete
PHIL/POLS 232	Theories of Justice (SH)	4
SOCI 280	Sociology of the Law (SH)	4

Complete three elective courses, selected from the list below.

Course Selected	Credits	Complete
	4
	4
	4

BUS 180	Business Law
BUS 225	The Manager and the Legal Environment (SH)
ECON 235	From Farm to Table: The Political Economy of Food Systems (SH)- LC course
ENG 179	Human Rights and Global Literature
PHIL 123	Symbolic Logic (QL)
PHIL 225	Ethical, Legal, and Social Issues in Information Technology (SH)
POLS 168	Criminal Law (LC course)
POLS 214	Constitutional Law: The Modern Court (SH)
POLS 216	The American Judiciary and Legal Issues
POLS 220	International Organization and Law (SH)
POLS 223	Human Rights: The Basic Dilemmas (GC)
SOCI 220	Working for Social Justice (SH)
SOCI 222	Organizing for Social Change (GC)

Department Contact

Dr. Dawna M. Thomas

Professor

Chair, Department of Sociology

Women's and Gender Studies

Director of the Law and Justice Minor

College of Social Sciences, Policy, and Practice

dawna.thomas@simmons.edu

W303D

(617) 521-2593